

Friends of Salt Springs Park

January 2015

www.friendsofsaltspringspark.org
m.saltspringspark.mobi

570-967-7275

2015

Happy New Year! We hope it's going well for you.

We're busy planning for the year. Highlighted here are some of our annual events. For those of you who hold your annual events at Salt Springs, please contact us soon. Inquiries and reservations have been brisk this month.

Mark Your Calendars!

Chainsaw Day
Saturday
April 18, 9 am

Trail Day
Saturday
April 25, 11 am

Field, Forest & Falls Trail Race
Saturday
September 5, 8:30 am

Salt Springs Celebration
Saturday
September 5, 11 am

News & Notes

We now have a mobile website: m.saltspringspark.mobi. With the latest program and park information at your fingertips, it's even easier to keep connected. Bookmark it!

We are pleased to announce receipt of a $5,000 Endless Mountains Visitors Bureau Room Tax Grant. We will reprint our park brochure (which has been out of print for over a year) and further publicize the annual Celebration and Trail Race.

Programs will resume soon. Concetta Schirra is working on late winter and spring programs. The next program brochure will be available on February 13th.

Ty Moon, an Elk Lake junior, has chosen to do his Senior Project to benefit Salt Springs. He'll produce a promotional video for us.

A can of Campbell's tomato soup cost 10 cents in 1898. How much is that in 2015 dollars? Come to the Historical Committee's General Store exhibit this summer to find out. With items from the McKeage Collection, the exhibit will reflect the wide range of products sold in general stores: clothing, toys, kitchen necessities, and tools like this leather stapler:

