#20 on the AOHW Art Tour

Saturday, Sunday, & Monday
October 12, 13, & 14
10-6 Daily

Artists in Residence Jayne Morris Stoll and Barbara Merritt will mount an exhibit in the Wheaton House during the countywide self-guided Artists' Open House Weekend art tour as the culmination of their year-long residency at Salt Springs Park.

Their art ranges from traditional quilts to contemporary textile pieces exploring new techniques, tools, and designs.

There's no fee for the exhibit, and a portion of the sales will be donated to the Friends.

Lunch Is Served!

Saturday and Sunday
October 12 and 13
10:30 a.m. till 2 p.m.

Think hot, homemade potato soup, fresh bread, and pumpkin squares on a crisp autumn day in the park.

The Friends will offer these and other homemade soups and sweets in the Carriage Barn on Saturday and Sunday during the Artists' Open House Weekend art tour. Stop in for some nourishment as you journey around the county experiencing our rich artistic culture.

Another Super Celebration!

There was nothing that was not fantastic about this year's celebration—the weather, the crowd, the volunteers, the proceeds, the food, the music, the vendors and white elephant sale and quilt show and all the other parts and people who rounded out this record-breaking day. Thank you to all who worked to make it happen and to all who came out to enjoy it!

The indefatigable raffle ticket seller Peg Miller!

The Binghamton ZooMobile staff delight us every year with their unusual mix of animals. This is a full-grown Egyptian Uromastix sp. lizard.

Eddie Smith, of Body & Soul Therapeutic Massage Studio, enlisted friends and co-massagers Joseph DeMichele (Susquehanna Massage), Andrew Granick (Body & Soul), Renee Hendrickson (Endless Mts Massage 2U), and Melissa Smith (Relax, Rejuvenate, and Restore) to set up with him, and they generously donated all their proceeds for the day to the Friends. Please patronize one of these experts next time you need some rejuvenation!!
